COMPLY™

Resource Center

Whether you are brand new to COMPLY™ or have been with us for years, we hope you take some time to check out the many training resources available within our Resource Center.

Our Resource Center gives your compliance team access to a world of knowledge right at your fingertips. You can learn more about the ComplySci® Platform and associated modules in whatever manner suits you best, including a variety of knowledge articles, our latest release notes, or video tutorials and past webinars recorded by our product experts.

Learning Paths

If you're not sure where to start, check out our new learning paths section, which can help you get acquainted with, and get the most out of, our products.

Search Functionality

If you're looking for something specific, use the search bar on the home page to quickly find relevant resources.

Broker Feed Directory

Be sure to check our broker feed directory for updates to our growing list of electronically supported brokerage feeds.

Events Calendar

Stay up to date on all upcoming webinars and other events located on our events calendar.

Additionally, we host multiple office hour sessions on a weekly basis, with meeting times which accommodate most time zones. Be sure to register through Calendly, located on the Resource Center homepage, for an upcoming session.

Support Tab

You can contact our support team and manage any open cases directly from the support tab! Additionally, if you have any suggestions, questions, or concerns, please let us know by submitting a case through the support tab.
